Americans' Disapproval of Bush and the War in Iraq Grows, Latest CNN/Opinion Research Corporation Poll Finds

PRINCETON, NJ – May 2, 2008 - Opinion Research Corporation, an infoUSA company (NASDAQ:IUSA) today announced that both public support for the U.S. war in Iraq and President Bush's disapproval ratings reached new levels, according to the latest CNN/Opinion Research Corporation poll conducted April 28-30.

When asked if they favored or opposed the war, 68% of respondents indicated they opposed, compared to only 30% who said they favored the war. In addition to opposing the war, most Americans feel it is going badly (59%), compared to only 39% who feel it is going well. Both questions have a sampling error of +/-3 percentage points.

Americans' pessimism with the war is also reflected in President Bush's approval ratings. When asked if they approved of how Bush is handling his job as President, 71% said they disapprove, compared to only 28% who approve (sampling error +/-3 percentage points). The President's approval rating is down 10 percentage points from a similar poll conducted in May 2007.

The poll was conducted by Opinion Research Corporation on April 28-30, 2008 which interviewed 1,008 adult Americans by telephone. The margin of sampling error for results based on the total sample is +/- 3 percentage points.
